MORE AUTHORITY THAN BRAINS. Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—Adjutant General Drum has written a letter to Chief General Drum has written a letter to Chief Signal Officer Hazen, in regard to the recent court marshal convened at at Fort Meyer, Virginia, in which he says the secretary of war instructs him to express his grave displeasure at Lieutenant Green, of the signal corps, who he says has manifestly failed so far in his care, or to comprehend the duties of his office and to realize that the use of harsh, insulting and abusive language toward his men, who from their position could not reply to it, strikes at the very root of military discipline, and evinced in the officer so acting, a deplorable want of self-control, which, if persistent, would demonstrate his utter unfitness for command.

The secretary of war also deems it his duty to repremand the rude and coarse manner in which the officers composing the court treated the counsel for the accused. Such conduct is utterly unjustifiable in officers sitting in the military courts in the capacity of judges.

General Hazen said to-day, that the above matters show conclusively that the court market is war a matter in which he had no remarks the court of t

All of the speakers favored liberal appropriations to enable the department of agriculture to establish and maintain quarantines and stamp out the disease. They lavored a measure that would not allow the payment of damages to shippers for stock found to be infected, and destroyed where it appeared that proper precaution had not been taken by exporters as to a certain

CHICAGO LAKE PRONT. A good deal of interest is felt among the citizens of Illinois at present in the city over the probable action of the treasury department in the matter of the lake front at Chiment in the matter of the lake front at Chicago. The subject has been a good deal discussed heretofore, and there has been a good deal discussed heretofore, and there has been a guestion of doubt as to whether the authority in the treasury department or the war department. The authority not having been located nothing has been done heretofore to protect the public rights from the encroachment of the railroad company, but as a result of a recent hearing it is reported that the general government is going to act with great vigor to put a stop to further encroachments of navigation. Inquiry shows that Colonel Thomas Keefe, an officer of the lake front at Chicago discussed heretofore, and there has been a good deal willington, Delaware, says information in solved to request the senators and congressing of the state to do all in their power to have passed by congress a bill authorizing the free coinage of silver.

There is a better feeling between the two societies and it was feared a serious root in the older parameted of the saircy uninjured, but usually in good that the general government is going to act with great vigor to put a stop to further encroachments of navigation. Inquiry shows that Colonel Thomas Keefe, an officer of the treasury department, stationed at Chicage, has recently been here at the instance of prominent citizens, and placed before the secretary very important papers in the case, upon which it is expected the government will act. Complaint is made by the citizens that the railroad company is absorbing the entire lake front, and by filling up the hashor is not only impeding navigation but imparing the rights of the city of Chicago and working a permanent injury. It is the opinion of good lawvers that either the state or city government could have interposed at any time to stop the railroad company, and surprise is expressed by representatives of the large eastern cities that such interposition of the police power has not been exercised long ago. No corporation will be allowed to put even a stone on the water front of New York or Boston, whereby navigation would be impeded or the public control of dock privileges lost. The inquiry that is now in progress is likely to solve the problem and locate the responsibility.

Representatives of the press have lailed to get an interview with Colonel Keefe, who, it is reported at the treasury department, has gone to New York, where he is working on some custom cases.

Socialistic Troubles CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—The following blood-thirsty circular, printed in the Polish language, was translated this morning, according to the Daily News. Similar ones have been scattered among the socialist clubs throughout the city, and a decided attempt is being made to carry it into effect. It is said, it seems, that at a masquerade ball to be held this evening, the Bohemians are to display signs which are said to reflect on anarchists and socialists. This leaked out corporate companies, but did not endorse the action of the national federation of trades unions, held at Chicago, in preparing for a strike, May 1st, for the eight hour system, but recommended legislation on the the socialists in two meeting places, resolu-tions will be immediately adopted to blow up the hall in case the Bohemians refuse to etract. The circular says: "Workmen, arise Free pass to the Turner hall! Workmen, the Bohemian turners of Taylor street will give a mask ball for the purpose of entertaining their friends." The programme states: "There will be a great display of entire continent, reviling them in con-temptuous and vilifying terms. Now, then, workmen, allow them and their guests the privilege of assembling and then show them genuine 'arielotru.' We therefore request all workmen in poor circumstances to show up in full to-night at the hall, and there demand that they shall something demand that they shall recall the insult. Fine clothes and kid gloves are not neces-sary requirements. The Sixth ward will assemble on Eighteenth street, and those of the Eighth ward on Dekoven street."

The circular was signed by the joint socialist societies of Chicago. The Bohemian society sent a committee to Chief Ebersoll to ask protection and Captain Simon O'Donnel, of the Twelfth street pelice station, has been assigned to look after the matter. The word "arieletur" is said to mean "thief" or "robber" or "socialist." A reporter for another evening paper called on August Spies regarding the proposed display. He said it was contemplated by the anarchists originally to take possession of the hall. They only desired to protest openly against the action of the turners. "Now, however," he said, "since the Bohemians have taken the cowardly the Bonemans have taken the cowardy step of summoning the aid of the police, there is no surmising of what will be the re-sult, and if the police begin to use their clubs or overstep their authority, the anar-chists will not, to say the least, submit to it.

ment can be on ground at a few moments notice. I don't think their is danger of serious trouble." The superintendent added: "The anarchists are not so foolish, I think, as to imagine they can defy the entire force of the city." The chief laughed at the idea that there would be serious trouble. Notwithstanding anarchist's threat, Turner hall, on West Taylor street, was crowded with Bohemian masqueraders, men, wemen and children. Around the walls were hung tawdry caricatures of socialists being clubbed by police, or marching in prison stripes. Beneath the canvasses the merrymakers drank their lager, smoked and danced without the slightest apprehension of alarm. On the outside in the immediate vicinity of the hall there was, at II p. m., when the ball was in full blast, nothing unusual to be seen, though early in the evening the street had been crowded with people drawn by the prospect of witnessing an exciting seed. In the adjoining thoroughfares the police were numerous, but mainly disguised in dizens' clothes. Two or three little knots of men, said to be anarchists, persisted in hanging about the vicinity despite the efforts of the police to getrid of them quietly. Finally the groups of twenty men in all case together by evidently preconcerted arrangement and attempted to assault an officer who went to order them away. Adozen police charged on the gang, the members of which dispersed like rats down alleyways and dark streets. The police thereafter busied themselves in stopping and searching all passers-by bearing the slightest resemblance of anarchists.
